The Scholarship Foundation of St. Louis
2025 Annual Report

2025 began with rapid changes to the U.S. Department of Education and threats to need-based federal Pell grants. A devastating spring tornado tore through the heart of St. Louis, leaving many lives and neighborhoods in a prolonged state of disruption. And on college campuses across the country, offices designed to support students from diverse backgrounds were intentionally and systematically dismantled.

Any of those events alone could put people and organizations working with students in a reactive position. The Scholarship Foundation's board of directors chose a different stance. In partnership with staff leadership, they made immediate changes to free up resources for students and began revising the strategic plan to ensure that Foundation scholars' paths to and through college were not disrupted. And through many efforts, big and small, steady and strong, they continued.

For students who do not come from wealth, it takes more to navigate higher education successfully: more perseverance, more resources, more community care. And as the smiling faces and stories of triumph in this report demonstrate, it is worth it. Your support and belief make it possible. Thank you.

LEADERSHIP

From major education policy changes in D.C. to natural disasters in our own backyard, the Foundation's board of directors led the organization forward. Under board president Tom Ruwitch's leadership, the board collaborated to make clear, careful decisions designed to fortify students' well-being in the near and long term.

AWARDS

In 2025, The Scholarship Foundation awarded $6.5 million to 546 students of good character and academic potential from low-income families. These awards came in the form of scholarship grants and interest-free loans. All awards are renewable and last-dollar, meaning the awards close the remaining gap in funding and ensure that students are not forced to withdraw from school short of graduation. The average grant award was $10,342 and the average loan award was $7,129. Now in its fourth year, an updated repayment policy has replaced a one-size-fits-all policy, resulting in increased economic equity for borrowers.

ADVOCACY

Eight Foundation scholars joined the policy fellowship in 2025. Throughout the fellowship, students tracked policy developments that directly affected higher education, closely monitoring efforts to dismantle diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) initiatives, ongoing changes to the U.S. Department of Education, and a looming shortfall in the federal Pell Grant program. Advocacy at the Foundation is student-led and student-driven. To deepen this commitment, the Foundation board of directors approved in 2025 the formation of the inaugural Student Policy Advisory Council, which will review and advise Foundation leadership on internal policies and procedures.

ADVISING

In 2025, The Scholarship Foundation's five full-time student advisors conducted 190 individual events or workshops, providing students, families, counselors, and community partners with crucial information for low-income students navigating the path to or through college. In one-on-one student meetings, advisors provided steady, compassionate counsel about the various paths available to low-income students to 1,306 individuals. Learn more about all the ways student advising is central to the work of The Scholarship Foundation by following the links below.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR DONORS

Every gift to The Scholarship Foundation propels the mission forward. The creative and dedicated generosity of our supporters is a significant part of what makes this organization remarkable. Together, we plan ahead for brighter futures alongside students and families – a tremendous privilege made possible by partnerships with individuals, families, foundations, and corporations that share our dedication to the many life-changing impacts of higher education on our community.

Contributions made between January 1, 2025, and December 31, 2025, are accumulated in the giving categories below. Such contributions include gifts and pledges to general support, scholarship grant programs, special projects, the interest-free loan program, bequests, and tributes. Donors wishing to make contributions can give online or mail a check payable to "The Scholarship Foundation" to 6825 Clayton Avenue, Suite 100, St. Louis, MO 63139. More information on other giving options (including planned gifts, bequests, and gifts of stock) is available by contacting Director of Advancement Jenny Weber at 314-932-6927 or jenny@sfstl.org, or by viewing the Case for Support.

DESIGNATED SCHOLAR LOANS
1981-2021

The Scholarship Foundation is grateful to those who generously contributed to the Designated Scholar Loan program during its 40-year history. These contributions formed the bedrock of the interest-free loan program, supporting many students on their way to graduation and allowing the Foundation to increase its reach. DSL funds continue to be recycled to support new students, and all DSLs will be listed in perpetuity.

For more information, questions, or comments regarding this report, please contact Jenny Weber, Director of Advancement, at jenny@sfstl.org or (314) 932-6927.
